Janice’s music style and stage presence have wowed audiences all over the world, and now she is bringing her unique, exciting, talent to Branson, MO.

Janice Martin is a Juilliard trained violinist, pianist and singer and, most uniquely, the World’s Only Aerial Acrobatic Violinist. Ms. Martin travels the world over performing her one-of-a-kind shows and acts either with her 5-piece band or as soloist with symphony orchestras such as the Philadelphia Orchestra, the National Symphony, the Atlanta Symphony, to name a few. “She displayed fine spirit and sound communicative instincts...played with engaging tone and exceptional stylistic insight,” says Paul Griffiths from the New York Times.

Martin was introduced to the Branson, MO audience while playing as a special guest in “Fiery Fiddles” at the World Fest at Silver Dollar City. She then went on to become the headlining act at the Showboat Branson Belle in Branson MO for 6 years. With new ideas and excitement to meet the demands of a changing Branson audience, Martin premiered her new show at the Americana Theatre in April of 2017. After a highly acclaimed first year, Martin was invited to perform her show at one of Branson’s most storied venues for the 2018 season, The Starlite Theatre.

Be prepared to laugh until your sides hurt, tap your toes to your favorite songs and be awed by the talented cast backed up with incredible special effects. There is not another show like it in Branson, MO! Refreshing and fun for the whole family, you will leave knowing you have "seen something different" in Branson, MO at The Janice Martin Cirque Show, now appearing at the Starlite Theatre.
